Republican Statements About New York. thy telegraph to the Dispatch.1

New York, November 10.—Messrs, El-kins, Jonea, Fessenden, and Senator Ho-bart, of New Jersey, were at Republican National headquarters to-day in conference, but the result of their deliberations was not made known. Chairman Warren, of the Republican State Committee, returns the repullation state of the his home this evening, and Secretary Vrooman to-morrow. A. S. Draper will henceforth represent the committee in this city. Vrooman to-day said the Democrats claim the State from the "inside" by 861. chain the State from the "mine by Sol," and that the Democratic investigation of the returns in this city has already lowered that amount to 436 by reason of errors against Blaine to the sum of 425 votes. At the Democratic State headquarters this was not verified, an official stating that the Democrats were "now struggling for what is already ours."

WATELTOWN, N. Y., November 10.—Attorney-General O'Brien, one of the State Canvassing Board, in a speech to the Dem-ocrats here, said: "I have no fears that the wishes or judgment of the people as ex-pressed at the ballot-box will be falsified or defeated. No party or set of men can steal the electoral vote of the Empire State. The laws of the State in regard to elections and the counting of votes are too perfect to admit of fraud, and the people of New York are too much in earnest to tolerate fraud even if it were possible. The votes given by the people of this State, I have no doubt, will be honestly counted, and the doubt, will be honestly counted, and the result truthfully declared."

Augusta, ME., November 10.—Everything is quiet here, but the anxiety over the presidential contest continues. Rumors favorable to both sides have been current all day, with the advantage rather on the side of the Republicans. Everybody is waiting for the count in New York to-morrow, though few believe the great question will be settled so soon.

Celebrating in Baltimore.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

Baltimore, November 10.—"A grand street parade in celebration of the triumph of honest government in the election of Cleveland and Hendricks," as the call announced, took place this afternoon. The procession consisted of twenty-four divisions, each with a chief marshal and aids and bands of music, representing various exchanges, commercial and mercantile trades and industries and professional callings, and also the Democratic political trades and industries and professional callines, and also the Democratic political clubs of the city. The first division consisted of the members of the Corn and Flour Exchange, and was composed of teading grain and commission merchants of the city. All the trades, dry goods, boots and shoes, bankers and brokers, and others were represented by the most solid and well-known men. General John Gill, member of the Corn and Fleur Exchange, was chief marshal. The Evening News estimates the number marching in procession at 20,000. Good order prevailed. Throughout the display the streets were thronged with people.

AGGUSTA, GA., November 16.—A Democratic demonstration in bonor of Cieveland's election was held in this city tanight. It was the finest display ever made here. Every house on Broad and Green streets for a distance of two mites was filtuminated and bore appropriate designs. A procession fully a mile in length paraded the streets. It contained displays of every trade and profession, including a number of students from the medical college, bearing skeletons, and cotton men and factory operatives. The devices carried bore the universal sentiment of equal rights to both races and full fraternity of the States, with an indeatructible Union. Speeches were made by Patrick Walsh, the Georgia member of the National Democratic Committee; General E. W. Maize, ex-Adjutant-General of South Carolins; Colonel Charles C. Jones, Hon. James C. C. Black, and others. The town was abize with enthusiasm, and the Democratis have been joined by the Independent Republicans who voted for Cieveland in this city. The Herald Beltimore special of Sunday says: The venerable eathedral of Baltimore, which has been the scene of so many notable events in the history of the Cathelle Church in Americs, to-day witnessed the greatest of them all—the formal opening of the third Plenary Council. All the pomp and ceremony that the dignataries of the Church could use to make the scene impressive were called into play, and the result was the most imposing scene ever witnessed in this Catholic city. By 9 o'clock this morning fully 25,000 people had gathered in the neighborhood of the cathedral, which stands on the corner of Cothedral and Mulberry streets, and in one of the most fashionable quarters of the city. The Young Catholic's Friend Society, headed by its president, and accompanied by large representations of other Catholic societies, was the first to assemble on Charles street, for the purpose of forming an except to the viciting prelates. After the mass, Most Rev. Archbishop Ryan, of Phiadelphia, preached on "The Church and Her Councils." He selected for his text the 18th, 19th, and 20th verses, chapter 28, of the Gospel of St. Matthew. He said that it was not without emotion and some emburrassment that he attempted to make an address on this august occasion. He was to speak of the Church which Christ had established on the earth and of its head. The Church recognized its head because God had placed him at the head of His flock on earth. The Church had been expessed to the rains and wind, but it fell not because it was founded on a rock, and Christ said it should continue to the consummation of the world. It was not deputed with ordinary power, but the Holy Ghost had decowed it with extraordinary power. Addressing himself to the priesthood, who were breught more into contact with the THE SERMON. BINGHAMTON, N.Y., November 10.—Before daylight yesterday morating a party of men discovered the remains of Theodore Gilliens, an unmarried man, thirty-five years of age, on the track of the Eric rathroad, near Great Bend, Pa. A subsequent examination revealed the fact that the man had been murdered and placed on the track, as a bullet-hole was traced through his side, just above the heart. The people are greatly excited. Addressing himself to the priesthood, who were brought more into contact with the people, be said they were present at the Council to aid its deliberations by their experience and counsel. Arebbishop Ryan said he was present years ago at the second Plenary Council, when there were fortysix bishops, and now there are over seventy. Of the forty-six then forty had passed to the Bishop of their souls, and their nearness to God makes them more zealous for the glery of God and the salvation of the people. GEORGETOWN, DEL., November 10.—In a beavy fog this morning an express train collided with a north-bound mail train between Berlin and Selbyville, Delaware, stations on the Delaware, Marvland and Virginia railroad. Both engines were damaged. Engineer J. H. Russel died about three hours after the accident. Engineer L. Smith was also badly hurt, but is still living. One passenger, William Long, had his leg broken. No one else was seriously burt.

The BATTLE OF THE CHUECH.

The Church was fighting the battle of the right sgainst the wrong. There are men of different religious denominations, and men et no religion at all, who look to this Council te lay the basis of a sounder morality, and the Church knows it is fatal to trust to human honor and honesty without supernatural aid. Men say they admire the Preacher of the Sermon on the Mount, but do not connect themselves with an institution founded by that Preacher. He gates of hell shall not prvail against it. Who hears you hears me; who despises you despises me and despises the Father who sent me." He premised to send the Holy Ghost to abide with his people forever. Saul persecuted not Christ personally, but His church, when the voice said to him, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?" The divine law endowed the Church with a mission of verification and sanctification, and it has come down through all the centuries without a break, or we should not know that it was the true Church of Christ. Where was the magnificent church of God of which the prophets spoke? Behold it in its representatives it this praise. THE PLENARY COUNCIL OPENED. adderence to the faith. Without the Church the world would be in chaos. The Church passes such salutary laws as will protect the consciences of the people. All the people in the Church might not be good, for there was a Judas and a Peter; but abuses have been corrected and will be, for Christ said, 'I am with you always, even to the consummation of the world." The Archbishop spoke against free will, and said the teaching of the Church should be accepted. Among the disciples there was one of free will, and he went out and sold Jesus Christ for thirty pieces of silver. Without the Church the world would go back to worse than pagan darkness. She has brought back the most abandoned, and in this young republic she will bring back the people by instruction, teaching submission to the will of God, by her love for the poor, by her orders which prefer noverly that they may the better serve God. of habeas corpus upon the ground that he was detained in custody by the State court in violation of the Constitution of the United States, because the statute which probibits a revenue officer from accenting coupons impairs the obliga-tion of the contract of the State to receive them, and is on that account inciparative and void by reason of the pro-vision of the Federal Constitution which precides a State from passing such laws. This Court holds that where a prisoner is in the content of a State court of com-

Washington, D. C., November 10.—A decision was rendered by the United States Supreme Court to-day in the exparte case of T. Temple Crouch, petitioner, upon a motion for leave to file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. This was an attempt to bring again before this court, in such a way as to obtain a prompt decision, the question of the receivability of coupons of Virginia State-bonds in payment of taxes. Crouch, the petitioner, insisted upon paying his license-tax in coupons, which the revenue-officer of the State decined to receive. Crouch refused to make payment in any out the Empire. In the province of a wang Tung four Roman Catholic and four Protestant churches have been destroyed, the bruses of the Christians looted, and the occurants driven way. In many places the wob not only destroys the property of the Christians, but also outrages the female converts. At Shi-Hung the Church-of-England chapel was destroyed. The Chinese tore the clothing from a preacher's wife and treated her shamefully. News has reached Shanghai from Pekin that Mr. Bagnell, a colporter of the American Bible Society, has been mardered in the Province of Shan Tung. Probably not less than sixty churches and chapels have been looted and the converts killed or driven into exile.

Yokohama advices state that the great success of the railways already built in Crouch refused to make payment in any other way, whereupon he was arrested and held for trial by order of the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond upon the charge of violating the license-law. NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

New York, November 10.—The atock market opened feverish and weak, and he the first ten minutes of business declined lai, except for Louisville and Nashville, which dropped 11 on reports that the company's depot at Louisville had been burned, and on a suit brought by a broker's firm for payment of a stock note. Northwest and Rock Island were also weak, the fermer declining 1, the latter 11. The weakness in Northwest was due to a report that the Vanderbill's were selling. After the first call there was a rally, and later on this improvement was lost. In the after-moon the market was feverish until near 2 P. M., when business became more active and prices advanced sharply. An announcement that Eric had reduced passenger rates to Chicago to $10.59 did not check the upward movement. The rise from the lowest point of the day ranged from 4 to 14, Union Pacific leading. At the close Union Pacific reacted to 48, but the remainder of the list closed firm.
